CENTRAL OTAGO DISTRICT COUNCIL LONG TERM PLAN: I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe that key buildings in the Maniototo district should be retained. The Wallace Memorial Building is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • A memorial space that must be kept by the Community: The Wallace rooms, built in 1953 with donations from James Wallace and the Maniototo Women's Group, initially served as Women's Rest and Plunket Rooms, offering indoor toilets for adults and toddlers and a resting place with Plunket services. It also provides access to toilets near the children's playground. The adjoining flat housed the local Plunket Nurse. Now, various community groups and specialists use it for activities and services such as physiotherapy, optometry, smoking cessation groups, and social agencies. These groups pay a rental fee to CODC for usage. • Generates Income to cover running and capital costs: The Wallace rooms have a self-contained flat that generates consistent income for CODC. Operational costs are minimal. Rental income from the unit and room users helps cover these costs. • Groups find the meeting rooms ideal for small gatherings. They are easy to heat and pertectror small to medium-sized meetings. The rooms are well utilized. • Structurally sound and not prone to earthquakes. • The Wallace Memorial rooms are structurally sound, well-maintained, and located on freehold land. with no need for expensive earthquake strengthening • Accessibility • The building offers accessible angle parking in front and is a single-story structure on a level surface. This design allows users to safely enter and exit the building. Many users are elderly, and the accessibility supports their continued confidence and independence in the community. • Maniototo Bridge Club: As Users of the Building: The Maniototo Bridge Club has used the Wallace rooms for weekly bridge sessions on Wednesdays and monthly team competitions from February to December for approximately 15 years. The building's size is ideal for our club membership, and amenities like a new heat pump, LED lighting, and ample storage make it an ideal space for card playing. The adjoining kitchen is perfect for preparing light suppers, enhancing the social experience. More recently beginner lessons have been run from the venue and provide a quiet space for learning. • Promotion of the building could increase usage: The space is ideal for smaller community groups or visiting specialist visiting the Maniototo. It offers an insulated, heated and well-lit area with no alternative or similar size in the area The Wallace Memorial Rooms are an asset to our community. Preserving this building maintains local history and offers benefits through minimal maintenance costs and tenant income, ensuring sustainability. Its potential for future use further increases its value, deserving preservation for future generations. The current level of Council support should continue.

Central Stories is centralised in our town of Alexandra and is easily accessible from the surrounds of town further afield. It is well designed, acoustically sound and provides a variety of available spaces for many users. It was significantly supported by the local community and businesses when funding was required to build it years ago. Functions continue to be held and are well supported in this environment too. Local information is also sought by travellers and supplied by volunteers. We fully support Central Stories and its services to the community as mentioned above. The existing operations manager Paula Stephenson has created a vibrant atmosphere and environment for all ages to enjoy. She encourages Arts on Tour, orchestras, choirs, and other talented people to utilise a variety of spaces for performance and/or exhibition which are ideally accommodated within the auditorium. Volunteers do a wonderful job supporting the operations but more funding is required to explore further future support and vibrancy! Please4 don't destroy such a vital central hub!

I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe the key buildings in Ranfurly should be retained. The Centennial Milk Bar is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • Visitor numbers are approximately 4,000 per year • It exemplifies the Art Deco flavour of the Maniototo and promotes tourism, which positively impacts local businesses • The Art Deco Museum is staffed by unpaid volunteers with local knowledge. They regularly provide advice to visitors, especially when the Visitor Centre is closed • The Centennial Milk Bar was opened in 1948 to recognize Central Otago's Centenary. This highlights our deep community links • As the only Art Deco Museum in the Southern Hemisphere, we are visited by local schools and tourist coaches • Our historical collection is donated or loaned by Maniototo families and provides an outstanding educational resource for Local Context studies • As our building does not have earthquake strengthening issues, we have the potential, if assured of our future, to explore other options such as an 'Artist in Residence' in our upstairs area or a Community Venue • Additionally, the building contains an Opportunity Shop that generates funds for charities and supports local community initiatives. Also, a beautician offers skin care and well-being services, empowering individuals to feel confident and engaged in their community • The capital expenditure proposed for the Centennial Milk Bar is minimal and running costs are already supplemented by rental income received from user groups providing exceptional community service. In summary the Centennial Milk Bar building is a cornerstone of our community's heritage. Retaining this building not only preserves a vital piece of our local history but also continues to offer significant benefits to the community. The Art Deco Museum, with its unique collection and educational value, attracts thousands of visitors annually, boosting local tourism and business. The volunteer-run museum and the Opportunity Shop within the building provide essential services and support to both tourists and residents, fostering a strong sense of community and charity. The minimal capital expenditure needed to maintain the building, combined with the income from tenants, ensures that it remains a sustainable and valuable asset for the community. The potential for future initiatives such as an 'Artist in Residence' or a Community Venue further enhances its value. Overall, the Centennial Milk Bar building is not just a historical landmark but a living, thriving part of our community that deserves to be. preserved for future generations. I believe that the Centennial Milk Bar building should be retained.

CENTRAL OTAGO DISTRICT COUNCIL LONG TERM PLAN: I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe that key buildings in the Maniototo district should be retained. The Wallace Memorial Building is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • A memorial space that must be kept by the Community: The Wallace rooms, built in 1953 with donations from James Wallace and the Maniototo Women's Group, initially served as Women's Rest and Plunket Rooms, offering indoor toilets for adults and toddlers and a resting place with Plunket services. It also provides access to toilets near the children's playground. The adjoining flat housed the local Plunket Nurse. Now, various community groups and specialists use it for activities and services such as physiotherapy, optometry, smoking cessation groups, and social agencies. These groups pay a rental fee to CODC for usage. • Generates Income to cover running and capital costs: The Wallace rooms have a self-contained flat that generates consistent income for CODC. Operational costs are minimal. Rental income from the unit and room users helps cover these costs. • Groups find the meeting rooms ideal for small gatherings. They are easy to heat and pertectror small to medium-sized meetings. The rooms are well utilized. • Structurally sound and not prone to earthquakes. • The Wallace Memorial rooms are structurally sound, well-maintained, and located on freehold land. with no need for expensive earthquake strengthening • Accessibility • The building offers accessible angle parking in front and is a single-story structure on a level surface. This design allows users to safely enter and exit the building. Many users are elderly, and the accessibility supports their continued confidence and independence in the community. • Maniototo Bridge Club: As Users of the Building: The Maniototo Bridge Club has used the Wallace rooms for weekly bridge sessions on Wednesdays and monthly team competitions from February to December for approximately 15 years. The building's size is ideal for our club membership, and amenities like a new heat pump, LED lighting, and ample storage make it an ideal space for card playing. The adjoining kitchen is perfect for preparing light suppers, enhancing the social experience. More recently beginner lessons have been run from the venue and provide a quiet space for learning. • Promotion of the building could increase usage: The space is ideal for smaller community groups or visiting specialist visiting the Maniototo. It offers an insulated, heated and well-lit area with no alternative or similar size in the area The Wallace Memorial Rooms are an asset to our community. Preserving this building maintains local history and offers benefits through minimal maintenance costs and tenant income, ensuring sustainability. Its potential for future use further increases its value, deserving preservation for future generations. The current level of Council support should continue.

I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe the key buildings in Ranfurly should be retained. The Centennial Milk Bar is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • Visitor numbers are approximately 4,000 per year • It exemplifies the Art Deco flavour of the Maniototo and promotes tourism, which positively impacts local businesses • The Art Deco Museum is staffed by unpaid volunteers with local knowledge. They regularly provide advice to visitors, especially when the Visitor Centre is closed • The Centennial Milk Bar was opened in 1948 to recognize Central Otago's Centenary. This highlights our deep community links • As the only Art Deco Museum in the Southern Hemisphere, we are visited by local schools and tourist coaches • Our historical collection is donated or loaned by Maniototo families and provides an outstanding educational resource for Local Context studies • As our building does not have earthquake strengthening issues, we have the potential, if assured of our future, to explore other options such as an 'Artist in Residence' in our upstairs area or a Community Venue • Additionally, the building contains an Opportunity Shop that generates funds for charities and supports local community initiatives. Also, a beautician offers skin care and well-being services, empowering individuals to feel confident and engaged in their community • The capital expenditure proposed for the Centennial Milk Bar is minimal and running costs are already supplemented by rental income received from user groups providing exceptional community service. In summary the Centennial Milk Bar building is a cornerstone of our community's heritage. Retaining this building not only preserves a vital piece of our local history but also continues to offer significant benefits to the community. The Art Deco Museum, with its unique collection and educational value, attracts thousands of visitors annually, boosting local tourism and business. The volunteer-run museum and the Opportunity Shop within the building provide essential services and support to both tourists and residents, fostering a strong sense of community and charity. The minimal capital expenditure needed to maintain the building, combined with the income from tenants, ensures that it remains a sustainable and valuable asset for the community. The potential for future initiatives such as an 'Artist in Residence' or a Community Venue further enhances its value. Overall, the Centennial Milk Bar building is not just a historical landmark but a living, thriving part of our community that deserves to be. preserved for future generations. I believe that the Centennial Milk Bar building should be retained.

Central Stories, this vibrant museum, arts and educational centre is a great asset to Alexandra. The extensive range of displays, art exhibitions, live concerts, outlets for local crafts and children's activities is exceptional. As is the talent and dedication of its tireless director Paula Stephenson. At present Central Stories thrives on Paula's creative spirit and her willingness to work long hours. Sens of fairness and civic pride is at stake here! The under-funding must be addressed! Rozena Hallum (volunteer since 2015)

I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe the key buildings in Ranfurly should be retained. The Centennial Milk Bar is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • Visitor numbers are approximately 4,000 per year • It exemplifies the Art Deco flavour of the Maniototo and promotes tourism, which positively impacts local businesses • The Art Deco Museum is staffed by unpaid volunteers with local knowledge. They regularly provide advice to visitors, especially when the Visitor Centre is closed • The Centennial Milk Bar was opened in 1948 to recognize Central Otago's Centenary. This highlights our deep community links • As the only Art Deco Museum in the Southern Hemisphere, we are visited by local schools and tourist coaches • Our historical collection is donated or loaned by Maniototo families and provides an outstanding educational resource for Local Context studies • As our building does not have earthquake strengthening issues, we have the potential, if assured of our future, to explore other options such as an 'Artist in Residence' in our upstairs area or a Community Venue • Additionally, the building contains an Opportunity Shop that generates funds for charities and supports local community initiatives. Also, a beautician offers skin care and well-being services, empowering individuals to feel confident and engaged in their community • The capital expenditure proposed for the Centennial Milk Bar is minimal and running costs are already supplemented by rental income received from user groups providing exceptional community service. In summary the Centennial Milk Bar building is a cornerstone of our community's heritage. Retaining this building not only preserves a vital piece of our local history but also continues to offer significant benefits to the community. The Art Deco Museum, with its unique collection and educational value, attracts thousands of visitors annually, boosting local tourism and business. The volunteer-run museum and the Opportunity Shop within the building provide essential services and support to both tourists and residents, fostering a strong sense of community and charity. The minimal capital expenditure needed to maintain the building, combined with the income from tenants, ensures that it remains a sustainable and valuable asset for the community. The potential for future initiatives such as an 'Artist in Residence' or a Community Venue further enhances its value. Overall, the Centennial Milk Bar building is not just a historical landmark but a living, thriving part of our community that deserves to be. preserved for future generations. I believe that the Centennial Milk Bar building should be retained.

CENTRAL OTAGO DISTRICT COUNCIL LONG TERM PLAN: I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe that key buildings in the Maniototo district should be retained. The Wallace Memorial Building is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • A memorial space that must be kept by the Community: The Wallace rooms, built in 1953 with donations from James Wallace and the Maniototo Women's Group, initially served as Women's Rest and Plunket Rooms, offering indoor toilets for adults and toddlers and a resting place with Plunket services. It also provides access to toilets near the children's playground. The adjoining flat housed the local Plunket Nurse. Now, various community groups and specialists use it for activities and services such as physiotherapy, optometry, smoking cessation groups, and social agencies. These groups pay a rental fee to CODC for usage. • Generates Income to cover running and capital costs: The Wallace rooms have a self-contained flat that generates consistent income for CODC. Operational costs are minimal. Rental income from the unit and room users helps cover these costs. • Groups find the meeting rooms ideal for small gatherings. They are easy to heat and pertectror small to medium-sized meetings. The rooms are well utilized. • Structurally sound and not prone to earthquakes. • The Wallace Memorial rooms are structurally sound, well-maintained, and located on freehold land. with no need for expensive earthquake strengthening • Accessibility • The building offers accessible angle parking in front and is a single-story structure on a level surface. This design allows users to safely enter and exit the building. Many users are elderly, and the accessibility supports their continued confidence and independence in the community. • Maniototo Bridge Club: As Users of the Building: The Maniototo Bridge Club has used the Wallace rooms for weekly bridge sessions on Wednesdays and monthly team competitions from February to December for approximately 15 years. The building's size is ideal for our club membership, and amenities like a new heat pump, LED lighting, and ample storage make it an ideal space for card playing. The adjoining kitchen is perfect for preparing light suppers, enhancing the social experience. More recently beginner lessons have been run from the venue and provide a quiet space for learning. • Promotion of the building could increase usage: The space is ideal for smaller community groups or visiting specialist visiting the Maniototo. It offers an insulated, heated and well-lit area with no alternative or similar size in the area The Wallace Memorial Rooms are an asset to our community. Preserving this building maintains local history and offers benefits through minimal maintenance costs and tenant income, ensuring sustainability. Its potential for future use further increases its value, deserving preservation for future generations. The current level of Council support should continue.

Central Stories is the most important building in Alexandra!! It concerns me that only one person is paid by CODC on a full time (plus some!) wage/salary - WELL DONE PAULA !! When are those in the council going to remove the cotton wool from their ears and listen to those who put them there?? The most important aspect that is missing is a full information centre - not just a kiosk! When it is housed in a retail business the days that that business is closed there is NO information available! NOT GOOD ENOUGH!!! It might be time to unearth and put the very mysterious $400,000 to good use. TRANSPARANCY PLEASE!!!

The cost of compliance when building is ridiculous and adds huge cost to building. it puts it out of reach for a "normal" Joe bloggs to develop their piece of land. leave only for the big guys to do this and inflate costs for "new" home buyers. If the $$ was actually used to improve infrastructure in the area it would be another thing. Raising this from $30,000 to $50,000 / section is pretty poor. What do we get in return? Just another $ grab :(

Q57. Other commentsDo you have any other comments to make in relation to the key proposals and content of the draft 2025-2034 Long-term Plan?

We needs a new surge system in Omakau. It's not good enough that every flood overflows through the current ponds & washes human waste into the river. Worse the dairy cows!! If it was a dairy for me you would have taken them to court!!! Every time it happens there are promises of fixing the problem. If it had been done 5 years ago it would have cost less. The longer you put it off the more expensive it will continue to get. Knowingly allowing this environment threat to local waterway is totally unexpectable & next time it happens , and it will bue to you dragging your feet, court action must follow. Also our water may not contain bugs but the the taste , odour and colour are not up to standard often. Boiled water notices are common and have, in the past, been in place for months. Taumata Arounui "Drinking water aesthetic values" states "Water is considered acceptable when its aesthetic properties are not objectionable to the majority of its consumers." There are lots of people in Omakau who have spoken out about our water. Also in this act: "water suppliers have a legal duty (section 24, water services act 2021) to take all reasonably practicable steps to ensure that they provide their consumers with aesthetically acceptable water" We do no get aesthetically acceptable water. Also making us boil off water for long periods of time does not meet your legal requirements under the act. Stop treating us like a 3rd world town.

Q40. Would you like to comment on the Centennial Milk Bar?

I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe the key buildings in Ranfurly should be retained. The Centennial Milk Bar is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • Visitor numbers are approximately 4,000 per year • It exemplifies the Art Deco flavour of the Maniototo and promotes tourism, which positively impacts local businesses • The Art Deco Museum is staffed by unpaid volunteers with local knowledge. They regularly provide advice to visitors, especially when the Visitor Centre is closed • The Centennial Milk Bar was opened in 1948 to recognize Central Otago's Centenary. This highlights our deep community links • As the only Art Deco Museum in the Southern Hemisphere, we are visited by local schools and tourist coaches • Our historical collection is donated or loaned by Maniototo families and provides an outstanding educational resource for Local Context studies • As our building does not have earthquake strengthening issues, we have the potential, if assured of our future, to explore other options such as an 'Artist in Residence' in our upstairs area or a Community Venue • Additionally, the building contains an Opportunity Shop that generates funds for charities and supports local community initiatives. Also, a beautician offers skin care and well-being services, empowering individuals to feel confident and engaged in their community • The capital expenditure proposed for the Centennial Milk Bar is minimal and running costs are already supplemented by rental income received from user groups providing exceptional community service. In summary the Centennial Milk Bar building is a cornerstone of our community's heritage. Retaining this building not only preserves a vital piece of our local history but also continues to offer significant benefits to the community. The Art Deco Museum, with its unique collection and educational value, attracts thousands of visitors annually, boosting local tourism and business. The volunteer-run museum and the Opportunity Shop within the building provide essential services and support to both tourists and residents, fostering a strong sense of community and charity. The minimal capital expenditure needed to maintain the building, combined with the income from tenants, ensures that it remains a sustainable and valuable asset for the community. The potential for future initiatives such as an 'Artist in Residence' or a Community Venue further enhances its value. Overall, the Centennial Milk Bar building is not just a historical landmark but a living, thriving part of our community that deserves to be. preserved for future generations. I believe that the Centennial Milk Bar building should be retained.

CENTRAL OTAGO DISTRICT COUNCIL LONG TERM PLAN: I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe that key buildings in the Maniototo district should be retained. The Wallace Memorial Building is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • A memorial space that must be kept by the Community: The Wallace rooms, built in 1953 with donations from James Wallace and the Maniototo Women's Group, initially served as Women's Rest and Plunket Rooms, offering indoor toilets for adults and toddlers and a resting place with Plunket services. It also provides access to toilets near the children's playground. The adjoining flat housed the local Plunket Nurse. Now, various community groups and specialists use it for activities and services such as physiotherapy, optometry, smoking cessation groups, and social agencies. These groups pay a rental fee to CODC for usage. • Generates Income to cover running and capital costs: The Wallace rooms have a self-contained flat that generates consistent income for CODC. Operational costs are minimal. Rental income from the unit and room users helps cover these costs. • Groups find the meeting rooms ideal for small gatherings. They are easy to heat and pertectror small to medium-sized meetings. The rooms are well utilized. • Structurally sound and not prone to earthquakes. • The Wallace Memorial rooms are structurally sound, well-maintained, and located on freehold land. with no need for expensive earthquake strengthening • Accessibility • The building offers accessible angle parking in front and is a single-story structure on a level surface. This design allows users to safely enter and exit the building. Many users are elderly, and the accessibility supports their continued confidence and independence in the community. • Maniototo Bridge Club: As Users of the Building: The Maniototo Bridge Club has used the Wallace rooms for weekly bridge sessions on Wednesdays and monthly team competitions from February to December for approximately 15 years. The building's size is ideal for our club membership, and amenities like a new heat pump, LED lighting, and ample storage make it an ideal space for card playing. The adjoining kitchen is perfect for preparing light suppers, enhancing the social experience. More recently beginner lessons have been run from the venue and provide a quiet space for learning. • Promotion of the building could increase usage: The space is ideal for smaller community groups or visiting specialist visiting the Maniototo. It offers an insulated, heated and well-lit area with no alternative or similar size in the area The Wallace Memorial Rooms are an asset to our community. Preserving this building maintains local history and offers benefits through minimal maintenance costs and tenant income, ensuring sustainability. Its potential for future use further increases its value, deserving preservation for future generations. The current level of Council support should continue.

I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe the key buildings in Ranfurly should be retained. The Centennial Milk Bar is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • Visitor numbers are approximately 4,000 per year • It exemplifies the Art Deco flavour of the Maniototo and promotes tourism, which positively impacts local businesses • The Art Deco Museum is staffed by unpaid volunteers with local knowledge. They regularly provide advice to visitors, especially when the Visitor Centre is closed • The Centennial Milk Bar was opened in 1948 to recognize Central Otago's Centenary. This highlights our deep community links • As the only Art Deco Museum in the Southern Hemisphere, we are visited by local schools and tourist coaches • Our historical collection is donated or loaned by Maniototo families and provides an outstanding educational resource for Local Context studies • As our building does not have earthquake strengthening issues, we have the potential, if assured of our future, to explore other options such as an 'Artist in Residence' in our upstairs area or a Community Venue • Additionally, the building contains an Opportunity Shop that generates funds for charities and supports local community initiatives. Also, a beautician offers skin care and well-being services, empowering individuals to feel confident and engaged in their community • The capital expenditure proposed for the Centennial Milk Bar is minimal and running costs are already supplemented by rental income received from user groups providing exceptional community service. In summary the Centennial Milk Bar building is a cornerstone of our community's heritage. Retaining this building not only preserves a vital piece of our local history but also continues to offer significant benefits to the community. The Art Deco Museum, with its unique collection and educational value, attracts thousands of visitors annually, boosting local tourism and business. The volunteer-run museum and the Opportunity Shop within the building provide essential services and support to both tourists and residents, fostering a strong sense of community and charity. The minimal capital expenditure needed to maintain the building, combined with the income from tenants, ensures that it remains a sustainable and valuable asset for the community. The potential for future initiatives such as an 'Artist in Residence' or a Community Venue further enhances its value. Overall, the Centennial Milk Bar building is not just a historical landmark but a living, thriving part of our community that deserves to be. preserved for future generations. I believe that the Centennial Milk Bar building should be retained.

CENTRAL OTAGO DISTRICT COUNCIL LONG TERM PLAN: I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe that key buildings in the Maniototo district should be retained. The Wallace Memorial Building is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • A memorial space that must be kept by the Community: The Wallace rooms, built in 1953 with donations from James Wallace and the Maniototo Women's Group, initially served as Women's Rest and Plunket Rooms, offering indoor toilets for adults and toddlers and a resting place with Plunket services. It also provides access to toilets near the children's playground. The adjoining flat housed the local Plunket Nurse. Now, various community groups and specialists use it for activities and services such as physiotherapy, optometry, smoking cessation groups, and social agencies. These groups pay a rental fee to CODC for usage. • Generates Income to cover running and capital costs: The Wallace rooms have a self-contained flat that generates consistent income for CODC. Operational costs are minimal. Rental income from the unit and room users helps cover these costs. • Groups find the meeting rooms ideal for small gatherings. They are easy to heat and pertectror small to medium-sized meetings. The rooms are well utilized. • Structurally sound and not prone to earthquakes. • The Wallace Memorial rooms are structurally sound, well-maintained, and located on freehold land. with no need for expensive earthquake strengthening • Accessibility • The building offers accessible angle parking in front and is a single-story structure on a level surface. This design allows users to safely enter and exit the building. Many users are elderly, and the accessibility supports their continued confidence and independence in the community. • Maniototo Bridge Club: As Users of the Building: The Maniototo Bridge Club has used the Wallace rooms for weekly bridge sessions on Wednesdays and monthly team competitions from February to December for approximately 15 years. The building's size is ideal for our club membership, and amenities like a new heat pump, LED lighting, and ample storage make it an ideal space for card playing. The adjoining kitchen is perfect for preparing light suppers, enhancing the social experience. More recently beginner lessons have been run from the venue and provide a quiet space for learning. • Promotion of the building could increase usage: The space is ideal for smaller community groups or visiting specialist visiting the Maniototo. It offers an insulated, heated and well-lit area with no alternative or similar size in the area The Wallace Memorial Rooms are an asset to our community. Preserving this building maintains local history and offers benefits through minimal maintenance costs and tenant income, ensuring sustainability. Its potential for future use further increases its value, deserving preservation for future generations. The current level of Council support should continue.

Q13. Would you like to comment on our plan for water?

The Central Otago Water Services to remain in-house. Our borrowing rating (280%) has risen sufficiently to incur the appropriate debt level that is sustainable. Currently there is very little actual and accurate detail in any proposal that involves other councils in the mix. Assumptions, of which the water services proposal is based on - are the mother of all mistakes. Southland is already experiencing grief with their joint council approach. Larger is not always better and often is a cumbersome beast that is unwieldly and more expensive. Optimum bulk purchasing rates can achieved via the water services contractor - not the CCO. Lack of accountability due to another level of governance is fool-hardy and hopeful. As said to Tamah at Omakau community meeting - 'you expect the public to make a submission on water services based on airy-fairy documents?' to which she agreed. This district need to look at dual water supplies as legislation demands high standards for potable water - NOT high water standards for irrigation and flushing toilets. The result of a dual water supply would be good 30-40% drop in high quality treatment facilities.

The Alexandra outdoor pool to remain open as closure will not save $200,000 in operating costs. Better management systems need to be introduced. Signage to the swimming facility from the highway need be appropriate. An Aquatic Centre as it currently called - appears to be a 'fish farm' and few visitors to the town are unaware of where the swimming pool is located. Occurred with 'Central Stories' often being mistaken for the library. When heating the outdoor pool - use the highly efficient evacuated glass solar tubes.

Super Cars to be funded as our commercial tourism operators would be the major beneficiaries of the event... although it appears that CHCH will hold the event. Commercial tourism operators contribute to the Tourism Fund... therefore their share of the fund should be considered separate and available for similar events.

Much has been made of the recent rapid and prolonged population growth which has increasingly placed further demand on our infrastructure. This is hardly unexpected due to numerous predictive reports and consent figures etc. So why are the ratepayers continuing to fund this growth? Where is the sustainable development funding going? Who is paying for the water lines out of Alexandra into the rural areas? Is the current model adequate for the current position and going forward? Develpment funds should anticipate the growth and staff should plan accordingly. Propose a wastepaper/cardboard facility in Alexandra. Inexpensive to operate and turns mulched paper/cardboard into blocks suitable for domestic wood burning heaters. Much appreciated. Would be available if time prevails to speak to this submission.

Q40. Would you like to comment on the Centennial Milk Bar?

I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe the key buildings in Ranfurly should be retained. The Centennial Milk Bar is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • Visitor numbers are approximately 4,000 per year • It exemplifies the Art Deco flavour of the Maniototo and promotes tourism, which positively impacts local businesses • The Art Deco Museum is staffed by unpaid volunteers with local knowledge. They regularly provide advice to visitors, especially when the Visitor Centre is closed • The Centennial Milk Bar was opened in 1948 to recognize Central Otago's Centenary. This highlights our deep community links • As the only Art Deco Museum in the Southern Hemisphere, we are visited by local schools and tourist coaches • Our historical collection is donated or loaned by Maniototo families and provides an outstanding educational resource for Local Context studies • As our building does not have earthquake strengthening issues, we have the potential, if assured of our future, to explore other options such as an 'Artist in Residence' in our upstairs area or a Community Venue • Additionally, the building contains an Opportunity Shop that generates funds for charities and supports local community initiatives. Also, a beautician offers skin care and well-being services, empowering individuals to feel confident and engaged in their community • The capital expenditure proposed for the Centennial Milk Bar is minimal and running costs are already supplemented by rental income received from user groups providing exceptional community service. In summary the Centennial Milk Bar building is a cornerstone of our community's heritage. Retaining this building not only preserves a vital piece of our local history but also continues to offer significant benefits to the community. The Art Deco Museum, with its unique collection and educational value, attracts thousands of visitors annually, boosting local tourism and business. The volunteer-run museum and the Opportunity Shop within the building provide essential services and support to both tourists and residents, fostering a strong sense of community and charity. The minimal capital expenditure needed to maintain the building, combined with the income from tenants, ensures that it remains a sustainable and valuable asset for the community. The potential for future initiatives such as an 'Artist in Residence' or a Community Venue further enhances its value. Overall, the Centennial Milk Bar building is not just a historical landmark but a living, thriving part of our community that deserves to be. preserved for future generations. I believe that the Centennial Milk Bar building should be retained.

CENTRAL OTAGO DISTRICT COUNCIL LONG TERM PLAN: I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe that key buildings in the Maniototo district should be retained. The Wallace Memorial Building is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • A memorial space that must be kept by the Community: The Wallace rooms, built in 1953 with donations from James Wallace and the Maniototo Women's Group, initially served as Women's Rest and Plunket Rooms, offering indoor toilets for adults and toddlers and a resting place with Plunket services. It also provides access to toilets near the children's playground. The adjoining flat housed the local Plunket Nurse. Now, various community groups and specialists use it for activities and services such as physiotherapy, optometry, smoking cessation groups, and social agencies. These groups pay a rental fee to CODC for usage. • Generates Income to cover running and capital costs: The Wallace rooms have a self-contained flat that generates consistent income for CODC. Operational costs are minimal. Rental income from the unit and room users helps cover these costs. • Groups find the meeting rooms ideal for small gatherings. They are easy to heat and pertectror small to medium-sized meetings. The rooms are well utilized. • Structurally sound and not prone to earthquakes. • The Wallace Memorial rooms are structurally sound, well-maintained, and located on freehold land. with no need for expensive earthquake strengthening • Accessibility • The building offers accessible angle parking in front and is a single-story structure on a level surface. This design allows users to safely enter and exit the building. Many users are elderly, and the accessibility supports their continued confidence and independence in the community. • Maniototo Bridge Club: As Users of the Building: The Maniototo Bridge Club has used the Wallace rooms for weekly bridge sessions on Wednesdays and monthly team competitions from February to December for approximately 15 years. The building's size is ideal for our club membership, and amenities like a new heat pump, LED lighting, and ample storage make it an ideal space for card playing. The adjoining kitchen is perfect for preparing light suppers, enhancing the social experience. More recently beginner lessons have been run from the venue and provide a quiet space for learning. • Promotion of the building could increase usage: The space is ideal for smaller community groups or visiting specialist visiting the Maniototo. It offers an insulated, heated and well-lit area with no alternative or similar size in the area The Wallace Memorial Rooms are an asset to our community. Preserving this building maintains local history and offers benefits through minimal maintenance costs and tenant income, ensuring sustainability. Its potential for future use further increases its value, deserving preservation for future generations. The current level of Council support should continue.

Q12.	Please choose your preferred option.	Option B: Status quo. Water services continue to be owned, maintained and delivered by Council.

Q13. Would you like to comment on our plan for water?

Prefer to stay with water services under the same umbrella of council. A separate entity will duplicate costs in administration and governance. There is also no guarantee that the preferred council option of a multi0council organisation will be acceptable to all council. Because of this high level of uncertainty I would choose status quo

Q14.	Please choose your preferred option.	Option C: Status quo. Retain the charge at 60 cents per cubic metre, with a fixed charge at $843.54 per connection.

Q15. Would you like to comment on volumetric charges?

I believe the majority of users will be impacted negatively. If council preferred options was adopted at current usage. 67% of users would be worse off and 33% would either continue to pay the same rate or be marginally better off. a 30% anticipated saving would change the scenario slightly but this 30% saving is complete uncertainty.

Q29. Would you like to comment on the Ranfurly Hall?

Current Uses: o The Maniototo Theatre Group uses the hall for rehearsals and performances each year for their productions, which bring the community together and are highly anticipated events. o The hall serves as a base for the theatre group's lighting and sound equipment, props, costumes, and other show-related items. o It is an important hub for various community groups, including Maniototo Area School, St John's School, Lions, and the Fire Brigade, and Maniatoto Community Arts Council. o The hall hosts speech competitions and end-of-year concerts for local schools, providing a wonderful stage and lighting that enhance the children's experience. • Community Events: o I he theatre group's productions are a highlight for the community and are booked out within days of being listed. o The hall is used for speech competitions and end-of-year concerts by local schools, offering a fantastic setting, sound system, and lighting that reward the children's many hours of rehearsals. o The Maniatoto Community Arts Council have hired the space on many occasions when their building has proved too small for performances. For example, fund raiser events such as piano recitals, visiting performances from Arts on Tour NZ trust, Ballet Performances, and Orchestral performances. • Care and Money Invested: o Significant investments have been made to improve the hall's facilities by the Theatre group totalling around $61,000 and this has benefited the wider pool of users of the space. o Improved lighting was installed last year by the theatre group costing around $6,000. • Importance of Preservation: o The Ranfurly Town Hall is a substantial and significant building in the town and requires preservation for its architectural qualities that align with the towns Art Deco history. • Council Support: o The council should retain ownership of the Ranfurly Town Hall and continue to support its preservation for the benefit of the community

Q30. Would you like to comment on the Naseby Hall?

Naseby Hall I believe it is important for Nase by residents and visitors to have a community hall or meeting space that is fit for their requirements and suggest the council continue maintaining the hall until the community decides on the best options for its future. Over the years, I have attended numerous musical tu nctions and tu ndraising activities in the Naseby hall, and I enjoyed its historical feel. It was warm and cozy even in the middle of winter. The council should collaborate with the Nase by community to reach a satisfactory outcome ensuring that the community retains a sizeable community meeting place.

Q31. Would you like to comment on the Patearoa Hall?

Community Need: The Patearoa Hall is essential for local gatherings and activities, providing a venue for events. I've attended many lover the years, weddings, funerals, ANZAC ceremonies, quiz nights, birthday celebrations, fund raising events, annual sales, Cavalcade festivities, and workshops. • Interim Retention: It is important to retain the existing hall in the interim while the community explores options for its future. • Earthquake Strengthening: The hall has been identified as earthquake-prone and requires strengthening, but the repair costs are substantial. A second opinion on the necessary work could be beneficial. • Consultation Time: The community needs more time for consultation to consider alternative options if the strengthening worl< is found to be excessive. • Alternative Options: The possibility of using or extending the bowling club building to accommodate larger gatherings could be explored. • Community Growth: The area is experiencing growth, with new buildings and an active community group, indicating a need for a community hub. • Council Support: With council support, a new community hub could be developed if there is an active committee willing to drive the project. • Divestment Considerations: It is essential to push out any divestment considerations to allow the community time to work with the council to retain a community space.

Q32. Would you like to comment on the Waipiata Hall?

• Waipiata Memorial Hall I contributed to the Waipiata Community Development Committee's submission and am treasurer for the group. I request that the council work with the community to retain the Waipiata War Memorial Hall. I have completed this individual submission, with additional comments after reviewing the Accessibility, Seismic Strengthening, Concept Design, and Fire Reports provided by council. I also expand on a possible alternative option of reducing the building size if full earthquake strengthening is deemed cost prohibitive. Value to the Community: • Built by the community as a memorial to honour war veterans and used by the community. • serves as an emergency hub. • Smaller meeting room equipped with a heat pump, kitchen, new oven, and refrigerator. • 1950s addition ideal for larger events with a sprung floor and stage. • Upgraded public toilets with wheelchair access, maintained by a community volunteer. • Preserves local history and enhances future use. Request to Delay Divestment Decisions: • Active community with various groups and historical preservation initiatives. ▪ Diesel heating decommissioned, reducing hire desirability. Improved heating could boost usage. Seismic Assessment and Strengthening Works • Most of the strengthening work outlined in the report relates to the 1950s addition of the hall, this is due to hollow blockwork masonry and the connections between the new and older part of the building not being up to standard. • The original part of the hall has been identified as needing new gib or plywood bracing in the ceiling area. • An option for community consideration if earthquake strengthening is considered prohibitive, could be to remove the 1950s concrete block addition and retain the original part of the hall which is a timber-based structure with rough cast exterior. • External North side walls could be strengthened. • Series of ranch sliders could lead out to a covered patio area. • Purpose-built storage area could house the civil defence emergency trailer, providing shelter from Easterly winds. • Community would retain a hall, although somewhat smaller, it could be attractively modified to create a sunny meeting area with wheelchair access and a patio. • Covered patio could have seating useful for both hall users and rail trail visitors. • The patio area could double as an outdoor room for ANZAC commemorations, allowing people to move freely between indoor and outdoor spaces. • Incorporate a bike storage area within the purpose-built storage area for the civil defence trailer. This would allow visitors to enjoy the grassed playground area and use the deck while providing shelter for their bikes, consideration could even be given to having a charging area for E bikes which could operate on a user pays system. Benefits of Reducing the Hall's Size: • Original hall has capacity to house 56 people, 1950s addition can house 200 more. • Reducing the size of the hall would eliminate the requirement for additional toilets which is something the accessibility report drew attention to and is based on the number of people the building can hold. At capacity the building could hold over 300 people therefore a regulatory requirement would incur the expense of additional toilets being built. By reducing the size of the building, the requirement for additional toilets will be eliminated and the existing toilets in the hall already comply with NBS. This will save costs. • The need for proposed portal frames around the tie structs will not be required further reducing costs. • Funds that council have budgeted for strengthening work could be used for modification to original hall, making the hall more attractive and energy efficient. • Community would retain community hub and emergency meeting point, likely to be much more utilized because the space would be lighter, brighter and warmer from installing North facing ranch slider doors. Perhaps solar panels could be installed during modifications to reduce electricity costs. Refer to attached sketch titled fig1 • Materials from the larger hall could be repurposed - sprung wooden floor sold, and concrete blocks used for landscaping projects in the area. • Seismic Assessment identifies the subsoil at the site as Class C - low site liquefaction susceptibility based on geotechnical investigations. The area is located within an area as having low to moderate risk of damage as a result of liquefaction. This information further supports using the hall as an emergency meeting point in the event of an emergency. Alignment with Council Infrastructure Principles: • Value for Money and Affordable: Keeping the hall and making necessary modifications is a cost- effective solution compared to building a new facility. • Integrated, Consistent, and Fit for Purpose: The hall serves multiple purposes, including as an emergency hub, community meeting place, and event venue, making it a consistent and integrated part of the community. • Environmentally Conscious: Repurposing materials from the larger hall and incorporating energy- efficient modifications, such as solar panels, aligns with environmental sustainability goals. • Reflective, Innovative, and Forward-Thinking: The proposed modifications, including the addition of a covered patio and bike storage area, demonstrate innovative and forward-thinking approaches to enhancing the hall's usability. • Meet Legal Requirements: The hall can be brought up to acceptable NBS standards, ensuring it meets legal requirements for safety and accessibility. • Equitable and Current for Future Generations: Preserving the hall ensures that it remains a valuable community asset for future generations, supporting equitable access to community facilities. Conclusion: • Request continued support and no divestment consideration while the community explores options for increased usage, clarification on national EQ strengthening standards , and community involvement in the hall's future.

FENTON LIBRARY Retaining the Fenton Library Building: A Pillar of Community Service • The Fenton Library Building is home to a vibrant hub of community engagement and service. The Burn Radio Station and community magazine, Positively Maniatoto, both housed within the library, play a crucial role in fostering a sense of belonging and providing invaluable services to the residents of Central Otago. Historical Background of Fenton Library • The Fenton Library building holds significant historical value and rich community traditions. Constructed in 1924 from a bequest by John Fenton, who hailed from Aberdeen, the building has been a cornerstone of the community for nearly a century. John Fenton, who settled in the area as a miner and later engaged in farming, generously provided for the younger generation to improve their literacy through access to books. Although the library books were moved to the Maniototo Area School in 1989, the building has continued to serve the community in various capacities, including as a Red Cross base and now as the home of Burn Radio Station and Positively Maniatoto magazine. Burn Radio Station: Amplifying Community Voices • Burn Radio Station serves as a powerful platform for local voices, offering a space for residents to share their stories, discuss pressing issues, and celebrate community achievements. It provides a unique opportunity for individuals to connect, learn, and grow together. The station's programming includes educational segments, local news, and cultural showcases, all of which contribute to a well-informed and cohesive community. Additionally, Burn Radio provides essential services during natural disasters, informing people of road closures, weather conditions, and other critical updates, leveraging local knowledge to get messages out to the right people. Positively Maniatoto Magazine: Celebrating Local Culture • Positively Maniatoto magazine is a testament to the rich tapestry of life in Central Otago. It highlights local events, profiles inspiring individuals, and shares stories that resonate with the community. By promoting local businesses, artists, and initiatives, the magazine fosters a sense of pride and unity among residents. It serves as a valuable resource for staying connected and engaged with the community's pulse. The magazine, along with Burn Radio, also supports the community vegetable and produce stand set up alongside the building, informing the community of surplus produce that can be shared freely. Alignment with Central Otago's Long-Term Plan • The retention of the Fenton Library building aligns seamlessly with the Central Ota go Council's Long Term Plan community outcomes. The council strives to create a vibrant, connected, and resilient community, and the services provided by Burn Radio Station and Positively Maniatoto magazine are instrumental in achieving these goals. Vibrant Communities: The library, radio station, and magazine collectively contribute to a lively and dynamic community atmosphere. They offer spaces for creativity, expression, and cultural exchange, enriching the lives of residents. • Connected Communities: By providing platforms for communication and engagement, these services help bridge gaps and foster connections among residents. They ensure that everyone has access to information and opportunities to participate in community life. • Resilient Communities: The library building serves as a cornerstone of community resilience. It offers resources for education, support, and collaboration, empowering residents to face challenges together and build a stronger, more resilient community. Request Council retain this building

CENTRAL OTAGO DISTRICT COUNCIL LONG TERM PLAN I am signing this to accompany the Community Feedback form as I support retaining key building in the Maniatoto district and consider the Centennial Milk Bar building is an important asset in our community. I volunteer at the Art Deco Museum and hold the position of treasurer for Rural Art Deco Incorporated. The Centennial Milk Bar Building The Centennial Milk Bar building exemplifies 1930s Art Deco modernist architecture. Located on the main street of Ranfurly, it is surrounded by a grassed area and gardens. As one of the town's Art Deco buildings, we consider it important for protection and preservation. Rural Art Deco Incorporated Committee Volunteers regularly open and operate the museum Friday -Monday and operate extended hours during holiday periods. The Museum is closed over the winter months when cleaning and upgrades to displays are completed. The gardens and hedges surrounding the Museum are also maintained by volunteers. Recent fundraising activities have enabled enhancements such as UV blinds to protect the collection, repainting the historic kitchen, new displays, and planning the replacement of worn linoleum. The Rural Art Deco Incorporated Committee consists of unpaid cornrnunity volunteers who operate the museum, apply for funding to improve the collection, furnish returns to Incorporated societies, and organise fund-raising activities to facilitate improvements to our display, we share local knowledge, history and stories with visitors to our area. Since its inception in 2000, the founding members and elected representatives and committees over the years have achieved several milestones: • Developing the JT Thompson Reserve and installing the John Turnbull Thompson sculpture. • Organising Art Deco festivals and balls. • Receiving Community and Regional Awards for the Art Deco Museum Installation • Assisting along with other community groups with funding the 125 Ranfurly Celebrations. • Collecting and maintaining a vintage wardrobe collection for hire within the building. • Collaborative tundraising to commission Lisa Moes's Deco-inspired artwork installation on a town cate wall. • Producing brochures mapping Art Deco buildings for guided tours during festivals and self-guided walks. • Designing and selling memorabilia items depicting the area's Art Deco heritage and railway history. • Installation of "Deco Cyclist" sculpture created by Brad Jackson and commissioned with assistance from the Ranfurly 125 committee and Aotearoa Gaming Trust Despite the uncertainty caused by the council's recommendation to divest the building, Rural Art Deco Incorporated remains dedicated to celebrating the area's history. Visitor numbers are consistently recorded, and positive comments highlight the display's appeal and historical information provided by volunteers. Our efforts to recruit new volunteers and increase opening hours has been put on hold along with planned replacement of vinyl in the kitchen area and enhancements to our collection until we know the future of the building. Benefits of Art Deco Museum • Historical Preservation: Provides displays and stories about local families and residents. • Visitor Engagement: Attracts tourism and offers valuable information. • Community Involvement: Operated by unpaid volunteers, fostering spirit and participation. • Fundraising Contribution: Donations help fund improvements. Benefits of Opportunity Shop • Charity Support: Generates funds for charities. • Waste Reduction: Offers affordable clothing and essentials. • Volunteer Opportunities: Promotes community involvement. • Social Responsibility: Assists individuals c11 1u lanutles in need. Alignment with Council Community Objectives • Enhancing Well-being: The museum and opportunity shop enhance well-being through historical preservation, charity support, and community involvement. • Sustainable Environment: Volunteer-maintained gardens promote environmental sustainability. • Connected Community: Fund raising activities and volunteer efforts foster a connected community. • Thriving Economy: Rental payments supplement running costs, reduce operating expenses, and contribute to economic growth. Recommendation to Continue Current Status The Centennial Milk Bar building plays a crucial role in aligning with council community objectives. Its multifaceted benefits-charity support, waste reduction, volunteer opportunities, social responsibility-are integral to enhancing well-being, promoting environmental sustainability, fostering a connected community, and supporting economic growth. The continued operation under existing terms ensures these contributions persist, benefiting both the community and the council. Therefore, it is recommended thatthe council do not divest the building but continue supporting its status for long-term positive impact . . ~~Signed .

I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe the key buildings in Ranfurly should be retained. The Centennial Milk Bar is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • Visitor numbers are approximately 4,000 per year • It exemplifies the Art Deco flavour of the Maniototo and promotes tourism, which positively impacts local businesses • The Art Deco Museum is staffed by unpaid volunteers with local knowledge. They regularly provide advice to visitors, especially when the Visitor Centre is closed • The Centennial Milk Bar was opened in 1948 to recognize Central Otago's Centenary. This highlights our deep community links • As the only Art Deco Museum in the Southern Hemisphere, we are visited by local schools and tourist coaches • Our historical collection is donated or loaned by Maniototo families and provides an outstanding educational resource for Local Context studies • As our building does not have earthquake strengthening issues, we have the potential, if assured of our future, to explore other options such as an 'Artist in Residence' in our upstairs area or a Community Venue • Additionally, the building contains an Opportunity Shop that generates funds for charities and supports local community initiatives. Also, a beautician offers skin care and well-being services, empowering individuals to feel confident and engaged in their community • The capital expenditure proposed for the Centennial Milk Bar is minimal and running costs are already supplemented by rental income received from user groups providing exceptional community service. In summary the Centennial Milk Bar building is a cornerstone of our community's heritage. Retaining this building not only preserves a vital piece of our local history but also continues to offer significant benefits to the community. The Art Deco Museum, with its unique collection and educational value, attracts thousands of visitors annually, boosting local tourism and business. The volunteer-run museum and the Opportunity Shop within the building provide essential services and support to both tourists and residents, fostering a strong sense of community and charity. The minimal capital expenditure needed to maintain the building, combined with the income from tenants, ensures that it remains a sustainable and valuable asset for the community. The potential for future initiatives such as an 'Artist in Residence' or a Community Venue further enhances its value. Overall, the Centennial Milk Bar building is not just a historical landmark but a living, thriving part of our community that deserves to be. preserved for future generations. I believe that the Centennial Milk Bar building should be retained.

Q21. Would you like to comment on the Clyde Railway Station Building?

There aren't very many railway station buildings left in New Zealand. Part of our history.

Q22. Would you like to comment on the Former Clyde Museum Stables & Goods Shed?

Before this museum was closed I thought it was the best museum I had visited. Being showed how the bellows and other equipment was used was very interesting. I haven't been to Te papa yet.

Q23. Would you like to comment on Blyth Street Museum, Clyde?

The museum is very well displayed and people find it very interesting.

Q24. Would you like to comment on Clyde Hall?

This hall is used virtually everyday of the week. St Mungo's parishioners used to use the upper room for services on Sundays. We have had to have services in peoples private homes because the Hall was in use on those days. Also our steady as you go exercise class which has 20+ people have had to use the fire station because the hall is occupied. I don't know how much the hall is hired out for.

Q46. Which option do you prefer? not answered

Q47. Would you like to provide comments on the Alexandra outdoor pool?

I would never use the outdoor pool as I have arthritis and need to swim in warm water, like the therapeutic pool.

Q48. Which option do you prefer? not answered

Q49. Would you like to provide comments on the Manuherekia Valleys Community Hub?

I think CODC should decide which option you can afford. I don't know what the Vincent General Reserves are. Option B could be used if the community using the hub can guarantee they will pay the loan back. Option C ask the community if they want to wait. You could buy the hotel from the Indians and use that building instead.

Q50. Which option do you prefer? not answered

Q51. Would you like to provide comments on the Supercars Championship?

If it provides income for the Cromwell Community you should try to have the Supercars Championships at Highlands Motorsport Park. The council should decide to use tourism reserves or through a promotions rate. Can the owner of Highlands not afford it. I know he's given the community something amazing, already.

Q52. Which option do you prefer? not answered

Q53. Would you like to provide comments on the Artificial Turf at Maniototo Area School?

Q56. Long-term Plan Policies Would you like to provide comments on the following policies as outlined on pages 34 - 41 of the consultation document?- Fees and charges- Development and Financial Contributions Policy- Revenue and Financing Policy- Significance and Engagement Policy

These four subjects equals 150 pages. I know you want people to know what the council is doing plus the 41 pages of the Long Term Plan. Do you expect everyone to read all these pages. You need people to understand what you are doing but could the pages be edited so there's less to read.

I believe Central Stories is an undervalued resource for the town. As me of their volunteer staff, I am the lucky recipient of comments from visitors who are overwhelmed with the scope within the building, the quality of the museum exhibits, the central otago art and craft in the shop any any art exhibition is a bonus along with Community House it is a focal point for activities, information for enjoyment of the incredible range of _____ offerings throughout the year. We are very lucky for a town the size of Alexandra and with extra funds the opportunity to enhance the offerings is exciting and of immense value to our community.

I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe the key buildings in Ranfurly should be retained. The Centennial Milk Bar is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • Visitor numbers are approximately 4,000 per year • It exemplifies the Art Deco flavour of the Maniototo and promotes tourism, which positively impacts local businesses • The Art Deco Museum is staffed by unpaid volunteers with local knowledge. They regularly provide advice to visitors, especially when the Visitor Centre is closed • The Centennial Milk Bar was opened in 1948 to recognize Central Otago's Centenary. This highlights our deep community links • As the only Art Deco Museum in the Southern Hemisphere, we are visited by local schools and tourist coaches • Our historical collection is donated or loaned by Maniototo families and provides an outstanding educational resource for Local Context studies • As our building does not have earthquake strengthening issues, we have the potential, if assured of our future, to explore other options such as an 'Artist in Residence' in our upstairs area or a Community Venue • Additionally, the building contains an Opportunity Shop that generates funds for charities and supports local community initiatives. Also, a beautician offers skin care and well-being services, empowering individuals to feel confident and engaged in their community • The capital expenditure proposed for the Centennial Milk Bar is minimal and running costs are already supplemented by rental income received from user groups providing exceptional community service. In summary the Centennial Milk Bar building is a cornerstone of our community's heritage. Retaining this building not only preserves a vital piece of our local history but also continues to offer significant benefits to the community. The Art Deco Museum, with its unique collection and educational value, attracts thousands of visitors annually, boosting local tourism and business. The volunteer-run museum and the Opportunity Shop within the building provide essential services and support to both tourists and residents, fostering a strong sense of community and charity. The minimal capital expenditure needed to maintain the building, combined with the income from tenants, ensures that it remains a sustainable and valuable asset for the community. The potential for future initiatives such as an 'Artist in Residence' or a Community Venue further enhances its value. Overall, the Centennial Milk Bar building is not just a historical landmark but a living, thriving part of our community that deserves to be. preserved for future generations. I believe that the Centennial Milk Bar building should be retained.

CENTRAL OTAGO DISTRICT COUNCIL LONG TERM PLAN: I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe that key buildings in the Maniototo district should be retained. The Wallace Memorial Building is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • A memorial space that must be kept by the Community: The Wallace rooms, built in 1953 with donations from James Wallace and the Maniototo Women's Group, initially served as Women's Rest and Plunket Rooms, offering indoor toilets for adults and toddlers and a resting place with Plunket services. It also provides access to toilets near the children's playground. The adjoining flat housed the local Plunket Nurse. Now, various community groups and specialists use it for activities and services such as physiotherapy, optometry, smoking cessation groups, and social agencies. These groups pay a rental fee to CODC for usage. • Generates Income to cover running and capital costs: The Wallace rooms have a self-contained flat that generates consistent income for CODC. Operational costs are minimal. Rental income from the unit and room users helps cover these costs. • Groups find the meeting rooms ideal for small gatherings. They are easy to heat and pertectror small to medium-sized meetings. The rooms are well utilized. • Structurally sound and not prone to earthquakes. • The Wallace Memorial rooms are structurally sound, well-maintained, and located on freehold land. with no need for expensive earthquake strengthening • Accessibility • The building offers accessible angle parking in front and is a single-story structure on a level surface. This design allows users to safely enter and exit the building. Many users are elderly, and the accessibility supports their continued confidence and independence in the community. • Maniototo Bridge Club: As Users of the Building: The Maniototo Bridge Club has used the Wallace rooms for weekly bridge sessions on Wednesdays and monthly team competitions from February to December for approximately 15 years. The building's size is ideal for our club membership, and amenities like a new heat pump, LED lighting, and ample storage make it an ideal space for card playing. The adjoining kitchen is perfect for preparing light suppers, enhancing the social experience. More recently beginner lessons have been run from the venue and provide a quiet space for learning. • Promotion of the building could increase usage: The space is ideal for smaller community groups or visiting specialist visiting the Maniototo. It offers an insulated, heated and well-lit area with no alternative or similar size in the area The Wallace Memorial Rooms are an asset to our community. Preserving this building maintains local history and offers benefits through minimal maintenance costs and tenant income, ensuring sustainability. Its potential for future use further increases its value, deserving preservation for future generations. The current level of Council support should continue.

Q19. Would you like to comment on the Poolburn Hall?

This hall is the hub of community activities for Poolburn Moa Creek area. It is also an historical monument to commemorate the soldiers of the district. It is a repository, display area of sporting and community achievements. It is the only facility in the area big enough to accommodate community events i.e. weddings, milestone birthdays, funeral services, and school activities and community meetings. It is used by the play group and sports clubs who use the facilities. The people of Poolburn have a great regard for their hall and it shows in their preparedness to take part in working bees to maintain its good condition. This includes rostered cleaning, spraying of outside areas plus enhancing the area with outside seating and an excellent children's play area. The Poolburn - Moa Creek is an important part of our community and needs to be recognised as such.

I have lived in Ophir 30 years + been to funerals, weddings, parties, dances, films all within safe walking distance of my home and within a safe & trusted community. My highlight was watching my grandson Finn Butcher win a gold Medal at the Paris Olympics on a midwinter night together with friends and neighbours on a large screen and share the excitement. The hall is our community.

This letter accompanies the Community Feedback support form to highlight the importance of retaining the Waipiata Memorial Hall • A memorial space built by the Community for use within the Community • The Waipiata Community Development Committee requests that any consideration of divestment be put on hold by the Council until the community investigates options for greater use of the hall. • The Waipiata hall is very much the centre of a wider community and the focus for it.Our community group includes residents, part-time residents, business operators and local farmers in the Waipiata township and surrounds. We actively work on historical preservation and development. Initiatives include tree planting, garden maintenance, installing street signage and information boards, restoring Hamilton's Waipiata Library, organizing fundratsers, and, most recently, producing an emergency preparedness brochure with Civil Detence, and preparing an emergencytrailerwith equipment and a generator, in which we have been generously supported by Kai Tahu. • Waipiata Hall as Emergency Hub In the event of Civil Defence emergency The hall is the obvious emergency hub for our area, and the only sizeable structure in the township for use in such an event. • Our group finds the smaller meeting room at the Hall ideal for community gatherings. It has a heat pump, an adjoining kitchen area, and is used for meetings, Anzac services, and potluck get-togethers. The larger hall area, with its sprung floor and stage, is suited for larger events. Previously it has hosted weddings, funerals, fund raisers, reunions, badminton, book launches, and was the venue for the Waipiata Darts Club. • Recently, the diesel heating system in the large hall was decommissioned by the council, making it less desirable for hire, especially during Central Otago winters. Regular maintenance and heating could improve usage, with ideas like starting a pickleball club, or other indoor sporting clubs or hosting fund raising activities such as garage sales. To improve the demand for use effort needs tofoin to marketing the possibilities it offers Further, access needs to be facilitated by having a key available locally rather than only in Ranfurly. • Alternative Option: Consider focusing on the smaller room with modifications for better indoor-outdoor flow, retaining its function as a meeting place and emergency hub. • Public toilets are in the hall Significant community and council funds were spent on upgrading the toilets in recent years to allow entry from the rear of the building and wheelchair access. They are used by visitors to the area, especially cyclists biking the Central Rail Trail. The toilets are serviced and cleaned by a local volunteer. • EQP Walpiata Memorial Hall Council report identifies the hall as earthquake prone. We believe the council should wait for the expected new government guidelines before deciding on the hall's future. • Population Growth: Increased new builds in the area indicate growing usage potential. Waipiata, along with all other areas in the Maniototo, will inevitably benefit from the population pressure on Queenstown and Wanaka, as well as its proximity and easy access to Dunedin. The Walpiata Memorial Hall is an Important asset to our community.'Preserving this building maintains local history and its potential for future use further enhances its value, meriting preservation for future generations. Once lost, rt is clear It would be lost for ever. We respectfully request that the Council continue to support the hall and refrain from considering divestment of the building in the Long-term Plan.

I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe the key buildings in Ranfurly should be retained. The Centennial Milk Bar is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • Visitor numbers are approximately 4,000 per year • It exemplifies the Art Deco flavour of the Maniototo and promotes tourism, which positively impacts local businesses • The Art Deco Museum is staffed by unpaid volunteers with local knowledge. They regularly provide advice to visitors, especially when the Visitor Centre is closed • The Centennial Milk Bar was opened in 1948 to recognize Central Otago's Centenary. This highlights our deep community links • As the only Art Deco Museum in the Southern Hemisphere, we are visited by local schools and tourist coaches • Our historical collection is donated or loaned by Maniototo families and provides an outstanding educational resource for Local Context studies • As our building does not have earthquake strengthening issues, we have the potential, if assured of our future, to explore other options such as an 'Artist in Residence' in our upstairs area or a Community Venue • Additionally, the building contains an Opportunity Shop that generates funds for charities and supports local community initiatives. Also, a beautician offers skin care and well-being services, empowering individuals to feel confident and engaged in their community • The capital expenditure proposed for the Centennial Milk Bar is minimal and running costs are already supplemented by rental income received from user groups providing exceptional community service. In summary the Centennial Milk Bar building is a cornerstone of our community's heritage. Retaining this building not only preserves a vital piece of our local history but also continues to offer significant benefits to the community. The Art Deco Museum, with its unique collection and educational value, attracts thousands of visitors annually, boosting local tourism and business. The volunteer-run museum and the Opportunity Shop within the building provide essential services and support to both tourists and residents, fostering a strong sense of community and charity. The minimal capital expenditure needed to maintain the building, combined with the income from tenants, ensures that it remains a sustainable and valuable asset for the community. The potential for future initiatives such as an 'Artist in Residence' or a Community Venue further enhances its value. Overall, the Centennial Milk Bar building is not just a historical landmark but a living, thriving part of our community that deserves to be. preserved for future generations. I believe that the Centennial Milk Bar building should be retained.

CENTRAL OTAGO DISTRICT COUNCIL LONG TERM PLAN: I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe that key buildings in the Maniototo district should be retained. The Wallace Memorial Building is an important asset to our community for several reasons: • A memorial space that must be kept by the Community: The Wallace rooms, built in 1953 with donations from James Wallace and the Maniototo Women's Group, initially served as Women's Rest and Plunket Rooms, offering indoor toilets for adults and toddlers and a resting place with Plunket services. It also provides access to toilets near the children's playground. The adjoining flat housed the local Plunket Nurse. Now, various community groups and specialists use it for activities and services such as physiotherapy, optometry, smoking cessation groups, and social agencies. These groups pay a rental fee to CODC for usage. • Generates Income to cover running and capital costs: The Wallace rooms have a self-contained flat that generates consistent income for CODC. Operational costs are minimal. Rental income from the unit and room users helps cover these costs. • Groups find the meeting rooms ideal for small gatherings. They are easy to heat and pertectror small to medium-sized meetings. The rooms are well utilized. • Structurally sound and not prone to earthquakes. • The Wallace Memorial rooms are structurally sound, well-maintained, and located on freehold land. with no need for expensive earthquake strengthening • Accessibility • The building offers accessible angle parking in front and is a single-story structure on a level surface. This design allows users to safely enter and exit the building. Many users are elderly, and the accessibility supports their continued confidence and independence in the community. • Maniototo Bridge Club: As Users of the Building: The Maniototo Bridge Club has used the Wallace rooms for weekly bridge sessions on Wednesdays and monthly team competitions from February to December for approximately 15 years. The building's size is ideal for our club membership, and amenities like a new heat pump, LED lighting, and ample storage make it an ideal space for card playing. The adjoining kitchen is perfect for preparing light suppers, enhancing the social experience. More recently beginner lessons have been run from the venue and provide a quiet space for learning. • Promotion of the building could increase usage: The space is ideal for smaller community groups or visiting specialist visiting the Maniototo. It offers an insulated, heated and well-lit area with no alternative or similar size in the area The Wallace Memorial Rooms are an asset to our community. Preserving this building maintains local history and offers benefits through minimal maintenance costs and tenant income, ensuring sustainability. Its potential for future use further increases its value, deserving preservation for future generations. The current level of Council support should continue.

Q40. Would you like to comment on the Centennial Milk Bar?

I am signing this letter to accompany the Community Feedback support form as I believe that key buildings in Ranfurly should be retained. In particular I believe that the Centennial Milk Bar is a valuable resource for our community for the following reasons; • Visitor numbers are approximately 4000 per year • It exemplifies the Art Deco flavour of the Maniototo and promotes tourism which impacts positively on local businesses • It is staffed by unpaid volunteers with local knowledge. They regularly provide advice to visitors, especially when the Visitor Centre is closed • The Centennial Milk Bar was opened in 1948 to recognise Central Otago's Centenary. This highlights our deep community links • As the only Art Deco museum in the Southern Hemisphere we are visited by local schools and tourist coaches • Our historical collection is donated, or loaned, by Maniototo families and gives an outstanding educational resource for Local Context studies • As our building does not have earthquake strengthening issues, we have the potential, if assured of our future, to explore other options such as an 'Artist in Residence' in our upstairs flat, or a Community Venue • The building also houses other facilities such as an Op Shop and a beautician's • The Museum is not expensive to run, the main cost is 'depreciation', which is unavoidable and not a 'real' cost. In summary, I believe that the Rural Art Deco Museum should be retained.

Q18. Would you like to comment on the Ophir Hall?

The hall is the vibrant centre of our close and active community. If it were to close it would rip the heart out of our town. We use our hall frequently for a myriad of community events. We have upgraded our hall - new toilets, new kitchen, disability ramps, lighting, heating sound are all new. I especially love that it is a peace hall.

Q18. Would you like to comment on the Ophir Hall?

I support the status quo regarding the Ophir Hall. Its divestment recommendations were made on false premises. 1) cost of earthquake strengthening 2) low use. The Ophir Hall has been built funded and upgraded largely through community effort over the last 99 years. It has cot the CODC very little. The hall reflects the communities history. The CODC reflects Ophirs built history by creating a heritage precinct in the town enshrined in the district plan. The Ophir Hall is part of its precinct. Herritage is an economic driver - visitors love Ophir but most of all of the hall is a brilliant community facility where we all com to meet on a regular basis it MUST be retained and supported by CODC

Q19. Would you like to comment on the Poolburn Hall?

I have spent many years on the hall committee. Over the years attending many working bees. Also heavily involved in the upgrades that have occurred. We did paint the exterior of the hall as a community. I have played cricket and rugby using the hall's facilities. Our family has had generations of using the hall. I would like to see continued Council support so the hall is an asset to the community.

5. They Clyde Museum is an ongoing project that has an increasing number of volunteers working there, that in the last few years has started creating some grand stories as a result of funding applications, that has the support of Clyde people including the local primary school which visits regularly, that is a reflection of Clyde and its surrounds. Museums are places of history that house local and national treasures is the local coalboat that is financially in place in what would be an outdoor of the museum. Shipwright, Rob Glover, has said it is the only surviving coalboat in NZ and it has a most interesting story. So there is a national treasure that was deteriorating until the museum took charge with the voluntary free of charge help of the time and materials of benchmark who believed in the worthy cause, also Clyde HIAB. There have been discussions as to the museum's future that should be assured in perpetuity, whether that be a long term lease or whether is brought fort $1 as has been suggested. The Museum in Clyde is several parts including the rail story in the train stations, the foods shed which stores some wonderful specimens for future plans. The accommodation unit that was gifted to us and the Briar and Thyme Museum of past times, the old stone cottage and wheel. Some is on reserve land, some on council land. An agreement needs to be able to retain the facilities for the future plans.

Q57. Other commentsDo you have any other comments to make in relation to the key proposals and content of the draft 2025-2034 Long-term Plan?

Due to the timing of public holidays and the grape harvest being in full swing, I was unable to submit my feedback on the Long Term Plan within the formal consultation period. I would like to kindly request that my submission be considered as a late submission. Having reviewed the previous Long Term Plan, it appears that funding was allocated under "Tracks and Waterways" towards the operation and maintenance of facilities (including tracks) associated with Lake Dunstan, among other areas. It is difficult to determine from the current consultation documents whether similar allocations will continue under the new plan. I would like to ensure that such funding remains available—potentially under the proposed Community Facilities Charge. In particular, there are members of the Lowburn community who are willing to contribute both financially and physically to the development of improved tracks around the Lowburn inlet, including connecting these to the existing cycleway from Pisa Moorings to Cromwell. I am requesting that Council consider making funds available to explore co-funding options for this initiative, and to support the ongoing maintenance of any resulting tracks. There is significant grassroots momentum around improving access and trail infrastructure in the area, and I believe this represents an important opportunity to support community wellbeing and active recreation.

Q12. Please choose your preferred option.	Option A: Create a Council Controlled Organisation (CCO) from 1 July 2027.

Q13. Would you like to comment on our plan for water?

You need to prioritise decent drinking water. it is a basic human right. In Ophir it has been fraught with bad engineering decisions and shocking water for the 28 years I've lived here. Boil water notices after heavy rain and supply severely downgraded by the Regional Council allowing dairy farms on both sides of the river above the water intake years ago. Hit them up for funding! The water is very chemicalised (I prefer not to even shower/wash in it) with chorine, fluoride etc and most locals buy or obtain other drinking water. Charging for the connection when its a ghastly and undrinkable is questionable indeed. I see tho as the biggst issue living here but it seems for Omakau/Ophir residents we are a low priority back-water.

Q14. Please choose your preferred option.	not answered

Q15. Would you like to comment on volumetric charges?

In a dry climate that experience droughts these are a rip off to the ratepayer. To keep your garden alive in dry periods and trees from dying you have to water. I collect and use a lot of rainwater when possible. Surrounding dairy farms water constantly!

Q16. Please select your preferred option.	Option C: Maintain Council support for specific halls and facilities on the list above.
Q17. Which hall/facility would you like to comment?	Ophir Hall

Q18. Would you like to comment on the Ophir Hall?

Ophir Peace Memorial Hall (opened May 1926) - One of only two Peace Memorial Halls in the country. This hall was built by John McKnight who built several buildings in the area including my house (Kintail house). This hall is a community gem and very much part of the local goings on for rituals, gathering, music, a meeting place that gives residents a sense of belonging and safety in a civil emergency. The community has rallied volunteers have contributed to the halls working bees and applications for funding for projects of maintenance. The council has given minimal funding (& is reliant on community volunteerism) The hall is well loved and utilised. Maintained and should remain supported by council.

Q51. Would you like to provide comments on the Supercars Championship?

I don't see this as the role of council (funding fossil fuels with rates?) when it is crying hard up in most other areas. Motorsport is a big machine that can find its own funding. This activity is also detrimental and polluting to the environment.

Long Term Plan needs to be about what sort of legacy you are leaving for future generations. Not divesting all historic & heritage building that are an important part of Central Otago's history and beauty and admired by visitors to the region. These iconic buildings sit proudly in the landscape and its short sighted to only view them in terms of dollars generated. More funding put into reserves with planting & beautification would be a good priority - along tracks, waterway (it is rather rough around Alexandra & outer areas in Vincent.)

Submission to 2025 - 34 Long Term Plan This submission is related to the proposed increase in water charges and rates. Old Cromwell Incorporated has for the past 40 years been developing and maintaining the area of Cromwell known as the Cromwell Heritage Precinct. Currently valued at over $7 million the precinct is visited by in excess of 250,000 people per year. Over time along with developing the buildings, the volunteers have developed garden areas and green spaces for visitors and their families to meet, relax and enjoy the vistas. Our main income is derived from the rents the tenants pay, membership fees and donations from the general public. The proposed rate increases along with the 200% to 400% increase in water charges will create a serious financial burden to Old Cromwell Incorporated. While we appreciate some of the costs associated with these increases have been imposed on the Central Otago District Council by the Governments proposed Water Reforms, we ask that the Councillors give due consideration to voluntary organizations such as ours who work extremely hard to provide the district with a vibrant tourist attraction that attracts locals and visitors to the area.

Q57. Other commentsDo you have any other comments to make in relation to the key proposals and content of the draft 2025-2034 Long-term Plan?

We are two young men who live in Alexandra and who both live with physical disabilities. One of us uses a walker to get around and the other uses a wheelchair. We love our town, and we want to be part of everything it has to offer, just like everyone else. But getting around safely and independently in Alexandra is not easy. The footpaths are often uneven, cracked, or too narrow. Sometimes the gradient is too steep or there are no proper drop-down kerbs, which makes it really dangerous for a wheelchair. In some places, we have no choice but to go onto the road, which is not safe at all. It's especially scary when there's traffic or when cars are parked over the footpath. When we want to go to the shops, meet friends, or just be part of our community, we have to plan around the state of the footpaths. Something that should take a few minutes can turn into a long and stressful trip. We both want to be as independent as possible, but its hard when the physical environment puts barriers in our way. We know the council is trying to make Alexandra a better place for everyone. We just want to remind you that people with disabilities are part of 'everyone'. Better, safer, and more accessible footpaths would make a massive difference in our lives, not just for us, but for others too such as people using mobility aids, older people, parents with prams. We respectfully ask that improving and maintaining accessible footpaths be prioritised in the Long Term Plan. Small changes like smoother surfaces, more ramps, and safer crossings could open up a world of freedom for people like us. Lets make Alexandra can be a place where everyone, no matter their ability, can move around safely and with dignity.

Q15. Would you like to comment on volumetric charges?

you're going to put charges up anyway so why put option C. I see the fixed charge will decrease from $756 to $509. If charge goes to $2.40/cmic saving of $247. However, the last bill for Body Corp was $2214 which will increase to $8856 - an increase of $300 per unit p/a. This may decrease my rates but will increase the BC Account which is passed on to owners. Will I see a decrease of $247 in my rates ?

The Clyde Railway station is one of the properties listed for possible divestment and is currently Shebikeshebikes bike hire company's depot. We hope that Steve and Carol Goodless who own and operate Shebikeshebikes can secure a long-term lease of the Clyde Railway Station. We believe it is beneficial for Central Otago as a region for this to happen. Their business has enjoyed good growth over the last decade and that is solely down to the way they operate their business with very high standards which their customers appreciate. It should be remembered that the general public still have access to walk along the platform. They are still welcome to walk into the station to purchase souvenirs or just to have a look at some of the historical items that Shebikeshebikes displays. To summarize our feelings we are hopeful that Shebikeshebikes can retain a long-term lease on the historical Clyde railway station.

Q12. Please choose your preferred option.	Option A: Create a Council Controlled Organisation (CCO) from 1 July 2027.

Q13. Would you like to comment on our plan for water?

Investment modelling for infrastructure needs to be explored beyond the traditional own and operate model. Perhaps a CCO could attract investors (private & public) to invest in pipes while the CCO invests in the technology to deliver its water services. Pumps PLCS treatment plants etc. Pipes one supply but expensive to construct and operate if you are reliant on others to build and maintain.

Q14. Please choose your preferred option.	Option A: Increase the volumetric charge to $2.40 per cubic metre, with the fixed charge of $509.24 per connection.

Q15. Would you like to comment on volumetric charges?

Volumetric charging is a good move, as long as CODC or CCO delivers consistently, and achieves economic value in water for the ratepayers.

Q16. Please select your preferred option.	Option C: Maintain Council support for specific halls and facilities on the list above.

Q45. Would you like to provide comments on the Ida MacDonald Roxburgh Pool Punawai Ora?

CODC/TVCB/Pool Committee should be encouraging the community to retain ownership of this facility. Under CODC ownership further investment in the facility will be restricted R&M and depreciation. True cost of CODC ownership and operation to Roxburgh and Valley ratepayers has not been made available. Time frame to consult discuss and decide is way too short.

Divestment of the Former Clyde Museum Stables & Good Shed: We oppose divestment of the Goods Shed, located within the Council Reserve Area in Clyde. This arrangement will provide the long-term security and certainty needed for the museum's sustainable future. Ensuring a fit for purpose facility: Under a long-term agreement, the Clyde Museum would anticipate an agreed approach by Council to covering ongoing capital expenses to ensure the building is fit for purpose. Improvements to heating, electrical upgrades and improvement to toilet facilities would help create a warm, safe and welcoming all-year round facility. This request is grounded in Council's resolution passed at the meeting on 30 October 2024. Equitable support and funding: Clyde museum requests parity with other Central Otago museums in receiving annual operational funding as a budgeted line item with the CODC budget. This request is grounded in Council's resolution passed at the meeting on 30 October 2024. Q11.	Would you like to tell us anything more about the Artificial Turf at Maniototo Area School?	this turfs quality is terrible and the sand in it makes grazes more prone to infection. the courts attached to the turf also have huge cracks in them making them very dangerous and many people roll their ankles and fall.

Q1. Are you younger than 18 years old? Yes

Q2. What do you think about Community halls and facilities? Council should keep all of the current halls.

Q3. Would you like to tell us anything more about Community halls and facilities, including feedback on a specific hall or facility?

They are well used throughout their communities and some of the smaller communities may be left with no where to run small scale events if these halls are closed. Especially as other venues are often quite far out of town or expensive to rent.

Q4. What do you think about the Roxburgh Pool? Council should own and run the Roxburgh Pool

Q5. Would you like to tell us anything more about the Roxburgh pool?

It would be a great opportunity for the younger kids to be able to hang out at the pool while not having to arrange parent supervision and would also mean that travel to alex for swimming isn't necessary.

Q6. What do you think about the Alexandra outdoor pool? Council should keep the outdoor pool open in Alex

Q7. Would you like to tell us anything more about the Alexandra outdoor pool?

The alexandra pool is used by many in the summer, especially as it gets hotter in the summer or spring months.

Q8. What do you think about Supercars Championships? Council should provide money to support this event

Q9. Would you like to tell us anything more about the Supercars Championship?

The supercars championship is incredibly well loved and I know that many would miss it if it wasn't on.

Q10. What do you think about the proposed Artificial Turf at Maniototo Area School? Council should spend money to upgrade the artificial turf

Q11. Would you like to tell us anything more about the Artificial Turf at Maniototo Area School?

Maniototo Area School would highly benefit from a larger and more updated turf as well as refurnished courts alongside. The school hockey teams do not have a large area of turf to practice on, especially for the senior team which contains over 16 players for more practices and therefore games and drills for all players are very cramped and often hard to execute properly. I know that the entire Maniototo community would greatly appreciate a new turf as well as refurbished courts. These courts are incredibly cracked and have become dangerous for our netball and basketball teams to practice on. Especially because playing at a fast pace creates a risk of tripping which is increased by the cracks, stones or breaks in the concrete. It also means that if someone were to fall, it is incredibly likely that they will be cut or scraped. New facilities such as these would also mean that the surrounding community may be able to run more friendly matches or hockey, football netball and basketball as the courts will be more suited to both the size and the safety required for these events to be held and to be enjoyed by everyone.

Q12. What do you think about the proposed Artificial Turf at Dunstan High School? Council should support the construction of an artificial turf

Q13. Would you like to tell us anything more about the Artificial Turf at Dunstan High School?

An artifical turf at Dunstan high school would mean that both the Alexandra teams and the Maniototo Area School teams would not have to travel as far, or at all, to play field hockey and that the higher level hockey teams from Dunstan and the Yr 7 + 8 teams will be able to practice properly on a full field sized turf, meaning that new players would be able to experience what it is like to run the full length or width of a field during a game and also how far apart each position each, as this is not as far on a smaller turf with the same players.

Q6. What do you think about the Alexandra outdoor pool? Council should keep the outdoor pool open in Alex

Q7. Would you like to tell us anything more about the Alexandra outdoor pool?

The Alexandra outdoor pool is a great pool for many ages. In summer it's a great place to cool of. Being at DHS I have been in the outdoor pool for kayaking practice. This venue was a great safe space to practice my skills. However when I've been to the pool the sign always says the outdoor pool is closed. You mention that there isn't enough numbers to keep it open but I think there would be more people if it was always open. The outdoor pool is a great facility and should be kept open, the outdoor pool is also a great place for cold plunging.

Q8. What do you think about Supercars Championships? Council should provide money to support this event

Q9. Would you like to tell us anything more about the Supercars Championship?

Q12. What do you think about the proposed Artificial Turf at Dunstan High School? Council should support the construction of an artificial turf

Q13. Would you like to tell us anything more about the Artificial Turf at Dunstan High School?

I think that the council should contribute to this cause. A new turf would open up many more opportunities within the community. The current turf in town if just too small. Because Alexandra is close to many places around CO a new turf would be beneficial for everyone around. A new turf would also encourage teenagers to get into new sports as there is the opportunity without the cost of travelling.

Putting some sort of shelter, e.g, roof or roof and walls, around the Alexandra netball courts so that the turf doesn't freeze or get damaged by weather conditions and we can play and not have games be put off because of weather. This will also be helpful because mainly all of central Otago around Alexandra travel here weekly to play, so it would be beneficial to more than just the Alexandra netball players.

Q7. Would you like to tell us anything more about the Alexandra outdoor pool?

As a competitive swimmer for the Alexandra Swimming Club, I think the outside pool is great. When it't a hot day, we are able to train outside because the inside of the pool is too hot. I also think that it is a great thing to have in the community, because it allows people to go to the pool on a hot day and have fun in the sun! not only is it good for the community but Dunstan High School uses it for their swimming sports and it the main part of swimming sports that we get to enjoy the most, we use the outside pool for fun activities such as pool noddle relays, rugby jersey relays and we have a house whirlpool competition. This pool bring so much joy to everyone who uses it.

This would be beneficial for Dunstan and the community to have because it allows for multiple types of practices, some may include hockey, futsal, soccer, and netball practices to be had. It also allows the community to come and use the turf, whenever they want, and it will free up the tennis courts downtown. It is also easier when winter sports practices get underway, and students aren't late because they have to get down to the park after school

Q2. What do you think about Community halls and facilities? Council should keep all of the current halls.

Q3. Would you like to tell us anything more about Community halls and facilities, including feedback on a specific hall or facility?

I think that majority of halls in different communities get well used and should not get shut down. If there are halls that don't get used and the community would rather go to another hall that offers better facilities then perhaps that hall could get shut down.

Q6. What do you think about the Alexandra outdoor pool? Council should keep the outdoor pool open in Alex

Q11. Would you like to tell us anything more about the Artificial Turf at Maniototo Area School?

Q12. What do you think about the proposed Artificial Turf at Dunstan High School? Council should support the construction of an artificial turf

I come from the heart of the Ida valley and have lived here my entire life and the hall has been a big part of it. We see your reasons for putting the money on us to keep the hall up and running, seeing we have high rates already and you're trying to stop them from getting higher. But, in saying that we are small valley of about 100 people and not everyone is rich, so we can't really afford to keep it running which means we quite possibly will have to stop using it forever! Which would be INCREDIBLY disappointing! Because we have a playgroup up and running there, a cricket field that people play on, birthdays, cross country, productions, prize givings, discos, weddings and much more, it even holds our memorials for the people that went to war. So if we were to stop using it and let it crumble where would all of our memorials and events go and happen? Simple, they wouldn't… On top of that you don't actually do much for us out here, for example we pay the cost for our school pool compared to likes of Ophir and Ranfurly that get there pool payed for, by you. I can also say for a fact that all the people in our community want to keep it. So I'm sure we would not mind paying a little higher rates to keep it running. So what do you think ? In that budget of yours could you pay roughly 300k for earthquake strengthening to keep our marvellous and wonderful hall up and running. So we can keep all of our events going and you might get a free front row seat to our productions, maybe even some free halloween candy at our disco.

Keep the Poolburn Hall! Here is why you should keep the Poolburn hall. The Poolburn School uses the hall for their production and you really don't want to take away that experience from them do you? We use the hall for lots of other things like Hallowen discos,birthday parties and even prize giving. If you keep the hall it puts smiles on so many kids faces and even adults. The kids play cricket and if you get rid of the hall we want to be able to go to the bathroom or fill up our water bottles and no one wants to be standing in 30°C weather and have no water! Little siblings won't be able to do anything but sit around and not be able to go on the playground,and little kids will be nagging their parents. Playgroup kids have been going there on trips for so long that I remember going and I am 12 years old. There are also activities and meetings there, which in my opinion is a really good place to do everything since everyone knows where to go.The hall is a great place and we would like you to keep it so the fun can carry on.

It's awesome! I think all of the pools would get used more if the water was warmer, in the indoor pools too! The water temperatures of them all are quite cool and not as enjoyable as a pool I went to recently where it was lovely and warmish and you could really relax and enjoy yourself!

It would be amazing, we train on small tennis courts and it is really hard to learn space in our game because we have none. It would mean so much less travel for us let alone all the kids from other areas like the Maniototo and Millers Flat and Roxburgh etc, therefore saving the environment too! It's very obvious that this needs to happen, please!

Because the Alex inside pool is too small in summer and it is a refreshing dip to swim outside. The inside pool is too crowded. Also Alex town is getting bigger.
